

WOMAN SURGEON WEDS, BUT NAME ON SHINGLE WILL NOT BE CHANGED

Dr. Mary Crawford, Bride of Edward Schuster, Once Law
Clerk of Her Father.

Dr. Mary Merritt Crawford, Brooklyn's first woman ambulance surgeon, though the bride of Edward Schuster, an international lawyer, will professionally retain her maiden name, the family announced to-day. Dr. Crawford and Mr. Schuster were married yesterday by the Rev. Dr. Howard Ketch at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Brooklyn, and started on a honeymoon to last until the first of the year.

Dr. Crawford returned from Europe
Oct. 1914, a year in the American Ambulance Hospital. For three months she was an assistant in Paris of Dr. Joseph Blake. Her father's illness hastened her return, and he died two weeks after she reached home. Because of his death the wedding was attended by only a few relatives and friends.

Mr. Schuster, a graduate of Columbia, formerly was employed in the office of Gilbert Holmes Crawford, Dr. Crawford's father. He fell in love with his employer's daughter, but she was ambitious for a career.
It was only after a hard struggle that she succeeded in getting admission to hospitals as a doctor. In 1906 she was accepted as an interne in Williamsburg Hospital and her ambulance work brought her often into public notice. Later she became chief surgeon of the hospital.

In the mean time Mr. Schuster was making a name for himself. He has an office in Mexico City and has spent much time in Chili.

BRIDGES GETS $25,000 VERDICT FROM GAS CO.

Lawyer Who Worked for Assessment Reduction Wins Suit Against Brooklyn Union.

After being out only thirty-five minutes the jury which has been hearing evidence in the suit for $25,- 000 brought by Attorney Henry W.
Bridges against the Brooklyn Union Gas Company returned a verdict for $25,000 in Justice Newburger's part of the Supreme Court.

Bridges, who had handled franchise tax assessment reduction cases for the Consolidated Gas Company, and was a friend of Mayor Gaynor, was recommended by the Consolidated Company to the Brooklyn Union Company. He worked on the franchise tax reductions for that company and claims he brought matters to such a pass that big reductions were agreed to. Then he was suddenly dropped. All the company ever paid him was $5,000 as a "retainer." He claimed a fee of $30,- 000, and the jury lopped only $5,000 off that claim. Mr. Bridges, like the Brooklyn Union Company in its franchise tax reductions, was highly satisfied with the reduced verdict.

STAR READER GUILTY; BAD FORTUNE TOLD HIM

Judge Wants Bonds or He Must Consult Planets From Jail for Six Months.

Christian P. Christiansen, President of the Psychological Research Society in the Tuxedo Building at Madison Avenue and Fifty-ninth Street, was found guilty of fortune telling by Magistrate Frothingham in Yorkville Court to-day. He was put under bonds of $2,000 to keep the peace for a year on penalty of a jail sentence of six months.

Mrs. Adele Preise, a police matron, said she had joined the society and had advice from Christiansen; she outlined to him the characters of imaginary children and he consulted the stars, she said, and told her how to shape their careers.

Frank E. Hippie, a lawyer of No.
60 Wall Street, for Christiansen, said Whipple had advised him that an associate in business was dishonest.
Later the man's dishonesty was proved. Christiansen also told him that a device in which Hippie was interested should be put on the market. It was and Hippie profited.

ATTACKED GIRL CLERK.

When Miss Adelaide Cava, bookkeeper in the offices of William Lynch & Sons, boiler makers, of No. 32 Bay Street, Brooklyn, to-day told John Wade, a driver of No. 55 Garnet Street, there was no job there for him. Wade seized her by the hair, dragged her about the office, choked her and blackened both her eyes.
